2018 has already signed up 550 Malaysian and foreign exhibitors including a third new companies and Malaysian industry big names such as Poh Huat Furniture, Lii Hen, Merryfair, Eurochairs and Wegmans.

With the show expanding by 25% to 100,000 square metres from last year, the overall number is set to surpass 600 exhibitors.

Almost 20,000 visitors from 132 countries attended the 2017 edition. More are expected to pack next year's show sporting the lively tagline "Design Connects People".

The focus on design to drive business growth sees new features such as designRena with a dedicated 15,000 sqm show floor for 50 top Malaysian manufacturers, the return of MIFF Office following its successful run as the largest office solutions in Southeast Asia last year and the new to launch MIFF Timber Mart to connect manufacturers with global timber suppliers.

Buyers can expect more unique exhibits and more minimalist European design, in particular Scandinavian style furniture that was extremely popular during the 2017 show.

"We foresee modern classic and Scandinavian trend will still be shining in 2018 with colours more focused on smoother and comfortable hues," said Mr B.K.Aw, marketing executive of Deesse Furniture which makes stylish and modern furniture. The company is considering adding Scandinavian designs and materials to its displays.

Ms Chua Yew Ting, marketing manager of Ivorie International said more consumers are looking for environment-friendly furniture with natural colours and Scandinavian designs are a winner with new home owners and young people, also in part because of the affordable prices.

The variety of exhibiting companies ranging from manufacturers, exporters, wholesalers and independent niche products suppliers will provide plenty of value and attractive options for buyers seeking large or small quantities of stock.

Among the niche product exhibitors is Kedai Bikin, a local rising name with its line of Malaysian -crafted furniture by local artisans and products ranging from loose furniture, light fittings and accessories.
